INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SILLERS, Director of Evening Department, the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

LESSON FOR FEBRUARY 1 THE UNFRIENDLY NEIGHBOR.

LESSON TEXT—Luke 11:1-13.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Ask and it shall be given unto you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you."—Luke 11:9.

The only record we have of this parable is in the Gospel. This portion of Scripture is usually thought of as being a great teaching on prayer. It is that, and it is more than that. It is a great illustration of the sound principles of pedagogy employed by that wonderful Bible teacher, our Lord and Savior.

1. Teaching by example (v. 1). There was that in the prayer life of Jesus that was different than that of the formalistic religionists of his day, something that inspired the request, "Lord teach us to pray." His prayer life was different, it was effective. Notice, in passing, the respect of the disciples "when he had ceased." If there is one lesson the oncoming generation needs to learn it is that of reverence. His prayers were too sacred to permit of any intrusion. His praying also awoke in their memory the prayer life of John the Baptist. There is deep psychology here. Observation, memory, perception, concept, all in their logical order.

Most Wonderful Prayer.
II. Teaching by formula (v. 2-4). The human mind is weak and needs that assistance which is to be found in a clear statement of truth. Not always can we have the benefit of a strong personality. Hence Jesus gave us a formula, or prayer, often called the "Lord's Prayer," but more correctly termed "the disciples' prayer." This is in some respects the world's most wonderful prayer, certainly the most familiar. Lacking in personal pronouns, it begins with that matchless conception of God, "our Father," it descends step by step from a consideration of his hallowed name, his kingdom, and his will (Luke 22:42) in heaven and upon earth, down to the question of our need of daily food. It then sweeps backward through the relations of mankind to each other, to temptation, to the power of sin, back to the Alpha and Omega. In its invocation, supplication and adoration, it sweeps the whole gamut of man's need, physical, mental and spiritual. It begins in heaven, it encircles the earth, it rebounds to those realms of glory from which the Son came, and to the prayers of the saints, living and dead, ought to be more emphasized. This kingdom here mentioned is yet to be fully established. A kingdom demands a king (Rev. 22:20); its beginning, though, is in the hearts of men; it implies entire submission to God's will (Luke 22:42); it delights in doing that which John 6:38, Eph. 6:7; it demands an entire sanctification of our lives, and a desire that his will shall rule in the earth (1 Thess. 4:3). The fifth petition is not the prayer of the unsaved sinner (John 9:31). Fellowship with God depends upon his will; hence to forgive others (Matt. 6:14, 15; Mark 11:25); but that is not the ground of God's forgiveness (Eph. 1:7; 4:32). God does not tempt men (Jas. 1:13); he does permit temptation to assail us, such as modern economic conditions (Mark 1:12, 13), but God never allows us to be tempted above what we can bear (1 Cor. 10:13). Volumes have been written about this prayer and yet its fullness has not even been suggested. The teacher who really prays cannot be a failure, for he has the power of God behind his labor. He must, however, not limit himself to his prayer only (Phil. 4:6; Jas. 5:13, 14). The Christian's prayer must be in the name of Christ, which is not named here, for he was not yet crucified.

The Holy Spirit.
III. Teaching by parable (v. 6-10). "A parable is an earthly story with a heavenly meaning." Only the teacher who can translate truth into terms of "it is like" has really begun to teach. Let us beware, however, of a wrong comparison and of too vivid details. This is not a picture of God, only by way of contrast is he suggested. There are three friends here: (1) The needy one who was a host, and (2) the needy one who was a selfish neighbor. The parable of the second was inexcusable (Phil. 4:19); the wandering of the first at night time cannot go unchallenged (Matt. 28:20). As for the third, it was a most unbecoming hour and his friend's insistence emphasized the urgency of the request and the confidence of a friend.

IV. Teaching by contrast (v. 11-13). Pedagogically considered this is the application. Notice it is introduced by the word "for" and the summary is the sum and substance of all good, the Holy Spirit. Jesus contrasts bread, which preserves life, with a stone, which is dead and lifeless. He contrasts fish, one of the most common meat foods, with a serpent, which signifies deception, and an egg, which is not only nutritious but reproductive as well with a scorpion, which has in it the sting of death. Each promise is predicated upon a command (Jas. 4:3), ask, seek, knock.

WOMAN IN BAD CONDITION

Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Montpelier, Vt.—"We have great faith in your remedies. I was very irregular and was dried and sleepy all the time, would have cold chills, and my hands and feet would blot. My stomach bothered me, I had pain in my side and a bad headache most of the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me lots of good and I now feel fine. I am regular, my stomach is better and my pains have all left me. I am proud of what your remedies have done for me."—Mrs. MARY GAUTHIER, 21 Ridge St., Montpelier, Vt.

An Honest Dependable Medicine
It must be admitted by every fair-minded, intelligent person, that a medicine could not live and grow in popularity for nearly forty years, and to-day hold a record for thousands upon thousands of actual cures, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, without possessing great virtue and actual worth. Such medicines must be looked upon as termed both standard and dependable by every thinking person.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Africans Eager for Education.
The Administrator of northern Rhodesia has undertaken a three-months' tour of the northeastern territory, and covered no less than 1,200 miles on a bicycle. He met every chief in the district, held large palavers at all the places he visited. He was greatly struck by the fact that most of the chiefs even in the wilder regions, made eager inquiries for education. They asked that the government would send them teachers so that they might read and write.

Potatoes the Size of Marbles.
Potatoes in Greenland do not grow larger than an ordinary marble.

Diogenes' Tub.
The tub in which Diogenes, the cynic, made his home, was a great earthen jar discarded from the Cylebe temple. It had been used for wine or oil for the sacrifice of the temple and was sufficiently large to allow the philosopher a reclining place. The truth of the tale has been called into question, although it is said that during the Peloponnesian war the Athenians dwelt in just such vessels, and that even after the death of Diogenes such receptacles were used as dwelling places by the poor.

Landlords Too Greedy.
Attempts to fix by statute the wages of agricultural laborers in England were largely responsible for the great revolt of 1831, or "Wat Tyler's rebellion." It represented the despairing effort of laydowners to get back to the level of wages before the black death came to make labor dear. But the lord of the manor overrode the mark. He wanted the day wage kept down to four pence to six pence a day. Had he put six pence to eight pence in the schedule there might have been no rebellion.

Women And Wet Feet
Cold and wet feet are a dangerous combination especially to women, and cooped-up kidneys often result. Backache, urinary irritation, and rheumatic fevers are not unusual results. Foley's Kidney Pills restore the regular and normal action of kidneys and bladder and remove the cause of the trouble. Contain no habit-forming drugs.

Don't begin to cough at night, just when you hope to sleep? Do you have a tickling throat that keeps you awake? Just take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It will check the cough and dampen the throat. This medicine is best for children and grown persons.

STIFFLETS, COL. A. J. Walsh was badly done up with rheumatism and sent for Foley's Kidney Pills which was the only thing that would cure him. Geo. Potter of Pontiac, Mo., was down on his back with kidney and bladder trouble and Foley Kidney Pills made him well and able to work. It is splendid medicine and always helps. Just try it. For sale by all dealers everywhere, adv.

Proper Focusing of Binoculars.
In focusing binoculars the tubes should be extended to their limit before placing to the eyes and then adjusted, for, if extended afterward, an optical nerve strain is caused that sometimes results seriously.

Best Cough Medicine for Children.
"I am very glad to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. Lida Dewey, Milwaukee, Wis. "Both for my children and myself it never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. No family with children should be without it as it gives almost immediate relief in cases of croup." Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is pleasant and safe to take, which is of great importance when a medicine must be given to young children. For sale by all dealers.

Saturday Once Thought Unlucky.
Saturday takes its name from Sæter, the Roman Saturnus, and for a long time it was looked on as the unluckiest day of the week.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
This remedy has no superior for coughs and colds. It is pleasant to take. It contains no opium or other narcotic. It always cures. For sale by all dealers.

To Remove Mud Stains.
Carbonate of soda will remove the most obstinate of mud stains. Rub off with a cloth or flannel dipped in the soda, then press the wrong side of the fabric with a hot iron.

Rare Merit.
This paper does not puff medicine advertisements. But we want to say that we have inquired about Gowans, King of Externals, for colds and as a preventative for pneumonia, and thousands of testimonials, principal among which is one from ex-Governor, R. B. Gleason, of North Carolina, and they all see the advertisement elsewhere.

"Confound it, Emily, where do you keep the pins? I've been looking high and low for one for ten minutes. I'll wager there isn't an article of the sort in the house. If we men ran our offices like you women—" "Oh, Dorothy, shake out the vacuum cleaner for mamma, dear, and take a pin right away to papa."

Puzzle—What Happened?
A well-dressed lady having given the signal that she desired to alight, the trolley car was brought to a stop, but just as the rear step was directly over a small mud puddle. The lady looked an instant, and then asked: "How do you think I can get off here?" and the conductor replied: "I can not tell you, madam, but I do know that we can't wait until that puddle dries up."

Whistling for Health.
A doctor has discovered that whistling is good for the health. It fills the lungs with invigorating oxygen, and this revivifies flagging spirits and flabby muscles. Boys are prone to be broader-chested than girls and better constructed for deep muscular tones because of the lung exercise which accompanies whistling, and one of the first things they try to do when they've passed babyhood is to whistle.

His Stomach Troubles Over.
Mr. dyspeptic, would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles were over that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury? That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for an ending of your trouble, but permit us to assure you that it is not altogether impossible. If others can be cured permanently, and thousands have been, why not you? John R. Barker, of Battle Creek, Mich., is one of them. He says, "I was troubled with heartburn, indigestion, and liver complaint until I used Chamberlain's Tablets, then my trouble was over." Sold by all dealers. adv.

A Difference in Working Hours.
A man's working day is 8 hours. His body organs must work perfectly 24 hours to keep him fit for 8 hours work. Weak, sore, inactive kidneys can not do it. They must be sound and healthily active all the time. Foley's Kidney Pills will make them so. You cannot take them into your system without good results following. For sale by all dealers everywhere. adv.

Teaspoon Not to Be Trusted.
The teaspoon is unreliable as a means of measuring a dose. It varies from sixty to ninety minims.

Colds To Be Taken Seriously.
Intelligent people realize that common colds should be treated promptly. If there is sneezing and chilliness with hoarseness, tickling throat and coughing, begin promptly the use of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It is effective, pleasant to take, checks a cold and stops the cough which causes loss of sleep and lowers the vital resistance. For sale by all dealers everywhere. adv.

Guard the Lips and Pen.
Speech is the chief revelation of the mind, the first visible form that it takes. As the thought, so the speech.
